DO NOT CIRCULATE !!
KEEP HERE

MONTHLY REVIEW
FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF RICHMOND
TABLE OF CONTENTS - 1960

January	Fifth District 1959 Monthly Review looks at...The Savannah River Plant A thumbnail sketch...The Industrial Production Index More "Little" Pigs Go To Market
February	1960 - A Year of Delayed Reaction Federal Reserve Wire Transfer Service Do-It-Yourself Credit The Fifth District
March	Textile Research - "An Industry of Discovery" Monthly Review looks at...The Eastern Shore Housing Slows as Expansion Accelerates The Fifth District
April	Credit and Interest Rate Developments Cotton: From Seed to Gin The Magnetic Check The Fifth District
May	Broilers...production boom benefits consumer 920,000 Cigarettes Per Minute Bills, Bills, Bills The Fifth District
June	Condensation of Address By Edward A. Wayne, First Vice President, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond To the Sixtieth Annual Convention of the South Carolina Bankers' Association Uncle Sam's Big Ear "So Far As My Coin Would Stretch" The Fifth District
July	Woolens and Worsteds...A New District Industry Monthly Review looks at...the Outer Banks Pension Funds: A New Financial Giant The Fifth District
August	Menhaden - our largest commercial catch Monthly Review...Buys Some Stock Mica - The Mineral that's "Good As Gold" The Fifth District
September	Trailers on Trains Federal Reserve Hikes Allowable Vault Cash and Cuts Reserve Requirements Why Does Gold Move? The Fifth District

October	Research Serves Farm and Home How Colleges Invest Their Money Factory Payrolls Pace District Income Gains The Fifth District
November	The 21st Southern Textile Exposition New Route Across Chesapeake Bay Population is People The Fifth District
December	State Income Taxes...Their Impact on District Taxpayers Cotton Classification Member Banks Adjust to New Vault Cash Regulations The Fifth District